Christians, you might have noticed, have their own unique way of talking that can seem like a completely different language. To help you translate, the Babylon Bee has compiled this handy updated guide to Christian phrases:

Rose Dinner Proceeds will help benefit “Don’t Swallow the Lie!” This life-saving campaign is designed to teach about the dangers of abortion pills, and the fact that they can be reversed. Most mothers and babies are protected from abortion in WV. But women are being lured into obtaining pills from out-of-state.

Inadequate studies are used to claim that major complications are rare. But well-documented evidence shows that more than 1 in 10 women experience sepsis, infection, hemorrhaging or other serious events within 45 days following a mifepristone abortion.

“Let’s take some time to posture our hearts before we start worship”: The media guy can’t find the lyrics slide.

“Please consider if the Lord might be leading you to volunteer in the nursery”: There’s literally no one watching your children right now, it’s Lord of the Flies back there.

“#BLESSED”: The store took my expired coupon.

“Lord, I just want to echo Bob’s prayer”: I forgot it was my turn to pray.

“I’m working to keep pursuing my wife’s heart”: I’m rinsing the dishes.

- Register beginning at 9 a.m. in lower rotunda
